

All about Dolphins!

Fill in the Blanks

warm	pods	echo-location	whistles
mammals	milk	calf	lungs
prey	breaching	blow-hole	intelligent

Dolphins are marine _____. This means that they are _____-blooded, feed their babies with _____, and give birth to live young. A baby dolphin is called a _____.

Dolphins have _____ and need to come to the surface to breathe. They breathe through nostrils on the back of their head, which is called a _____-_____. Dolphins often jump out of the water too, this is called _____.

Dolphins live in groups called _____. They are very _____ and communicate with each other by making clicks and _____. Dolphins have a special sense called _____-_____. This works like the sonar of a submarine, and helps them to find their _____: fish and squid.

